Anna Weeks, after a year on the frontier, first with only her teen age brother for company and then months of blizzard and poverty by herself, welcomes her Mamma and Pappa, brother and sisters to the Firelands. Now that they are once again together as a family, she believes the bad times are behind her. She has survived the horror of what she calls the Overpast. Ahead, she envisions community, a town , neighbors.

But instead of progress a prairie fire sweeps the farm, flood waters rot the grain in the fields and then comes the War of 1812. The five able men are recruited. Crops and animals confiscated. One house is made a stockade, another headquarters for the military. A barn becomes the hospital with Anna the only nurse. Where is peace? Will this Frontier ever become home?
