One would think that love at first sight would be easy... assuming it could really happen. Samantha (Sam) was always having to put perspective dates through what she lovingly referred to as the Larissa test. Her younger sister was annoyingly perfect in every way and men tended to take one look at her and practically trip over their tongues. When she goes to the Caribbean Islands for her sister's wedding to a man who had started out attracted to her; the last thing she expected was to meet the perfect man... Ryan is tall, dark, gorgeous, wealthy, successful, funny, charming, witty, and irresistible. On top of all of that, even with her perfect sister around, he only seems to have eyes for HER. Sam no sooner decides to trust Ryan with her heart when the other shoe drops... Trouble, intrigue, danger and disaster lurk behind every corner..... Will she be the one to walk away from what is beginning to look like true love or will the danger only draw her in deeper? The more pivotal question was if they would both survive the ordeal long enough to find out if love at first sight can really last or not.
