Pure Joy Living.....and Horses: My journey through life with horse fever. Ms. Joy M. de Pominville
Imagine going back to your childhood and remembering seeing yourself totally mesmerized by something that grabbed your interest and curiosity. It was when you became utterly mindless of what was going on around you. It felt like you were caught up in a wave that engulfed you from head to toe in this something and set you basking in an almost surreal reverie, with visualizations gone wild. Once more you are feeling all the excitement, wonder and fantasy, completely immersed in giddy happiness, feeling light and carefree, floating on clouds of dreams. Is this what pure joy living is all about? Perhaps we as grown-ups need to find what catapults us back to this vibration of total surrender to discover who we are meant to be, do, and contribute in this lifetime. It was horses for this author, what is it for you?
