This is not your typical blah, blah, blah parenting book. You don't have to be a parent, parent-to-be, grandparent, godparent, foster parent or parental anything to read this book. We all know at least one mommy or daddy who deserves a "time out" for the avoidable mess that his/her clueless parenting has made. A mess that every man, woman, boy and girl has to put up with or stay away from for our own safety, peace of mind, and well being. We may never say anything about the nasty thing that talks back, disrupts the peace or breaks rules, but boy, are we thinking it! Unless, of course, you are that troublemaker's parent.
