It's New Year's Eve... What's a fairy to do?

The king of the Fairies has granted his daughter Mariel one year in Regency London before she must return to their realm to be married. Several hours before midnight on New Year's Eve, a fairy is sent to fetch her home—her childhood love, Rhys. Even though part of her is glad to see the dark, handsome fairy again, she knows he's been sent by her father to collect her. And she's not about to give up her last precious hours in the world she's grown to love.

But when Mariel learns that her father has chosen Rhys as her husband to unite their two clans, the idea of marriage sounds much more appealing. Especially once her new husband takes off his clothes and leads her to bed...
