A shy BBW teacher + a sexy billionaire wolf shifter + a mail-order bride company = a white-hot wedding!

I have three conditions:

- 1. I want to be married as soon as possible*
- 2. I will move in with you, rather than having you come to live with me*
- 3. You must agree not to ask any questions about my past*

I realize that this situation is very unusual. Therefore if you accept my conditions, I am willing to pay you a million dollars, even if the relationship doesn't work out.

That's the email Robin Tucker, a small-town kindergarten teacher, receives one morning. The money would be nice, but being married to Austin Sullivan, the hottest man she's ever seen, would be even nicer. She's spent her life being too shy to take a chance on adventure, and Austin could show her a whole new world. But is he hiding a dark secret? Or could saying yes to his offer be the best decision she's ever made?

Austin wants to leave his family of dangerous and dishonorable wolf shifters. A wife would be the perfect excuse to move away from home and start a new life. But once he meets Robin, sparks fly, and he realizes that she might be the mate he never believed he could find. Can he protect her when his brothers come looking for them both?

This is a sizzling hot, standalone BBW werewolf romance. No cliffhangers!
