Amish Love Anew: Hannah, Jacob and The Abandoned Englisher Boy (Adopted By The Amish Book 1) Katura Miller

The true desire of Hannah's heart has always been to have a child; but since her husband's passing, it seems that God's will is for her to remain a childless widow. Though her heart grieves, she stands determined to live in accordance with God, and to be grateful for what she does have, little though it may be. Never in a thousand years would she have ever imagined what God has in plan for her...

When Jacob returns to the Amish community of his youth, he's bitter and jaded. The outside world took back everything it had promised to give him. His marriage to an English woman had been a disaster. When his wife dies, Jacob returns to his community determined to live the rest of his days alone...

But when Jacob finds an injured child behind his barn one frosty February morning, Hannah is called on to care for the boy, and so begins a drama neither he nor Hannah could have ever foreseen...

Though we may feel sorrow or anguish...God has a plan to make all things new.
