“You are my fated mate. Mine.”

Dumped by her boyfriend on her birthday, Marissa Kenley seethes with anger she'd not been the one to do it first. That's OK, because despite the shitty hand that life tends to deal her, she always finds a way back on top.

But fate's a contradictory bitch, and when Marissa discovers her name on a beautiful watch, she's teleported ass-first into a strange new world filled with terrifying creatures that try to eat her. Thank goodness for the sexy as hell alien warrior who saved her. Tall, bronze and powerful, her body is lit on fire the instant he touches her.

She really ought to find her way back to Earth. Yet as the time goes by, she wonders if she ever has to leave.

Aizak has no time or attention for a woman, least of all a human. As the leader of his tribe, his sole focus is protecting his people from the monsters that seek to hurt them. But the moment he holds the soft, curvy human woman in his arms, his plans are diminished in importance. The connection he shares with her is deep and intense. She is his fated and all he wants is her.
