Common Threads: Passion, Perseverance and Praise Mr. Andrew John DeVries

The past, present and future generations of my family have much more in common than a surname. Reflecting on our life experiences, how we respond, and what we learn and share from these events have affirmed some common characteristics: the passion that drives us to make a difference, the perseverance to keep going in the face of adversity, and the desire to give the praise to God, who has a perfect plan and supplies to necessary strength to accomplish all things.
