Recognize this: "You're a wizard Harry!?" If you don't, you may have been living under a rock for quite some time. Because of the insanely awesome Harry Potter series, Brett Siddoway wrote this short read as a film analysis final on the movie, "Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Part 1." Brett wrote this paper for his intro to film class, discussing the techniques director David Yates used to make the film a stunning success. Brett discusses Yates' exceptional use of colors, sound, and cinematography to make his movie a solid success.

If you want to see the behind the scenes that made this franchise so successful, then check out Brett's Book today!
