Join us for one of the great, sophisticated, classic works of literature; an engrossing, heartwarming tale and a masterly portrayal of morality in Victorian England. Falsely accused of theft, Silas Marner, loses everything, including his faith. He moves to a small village and becomes a bitter, reclusive weaver, loving only money, which is then stolen. One evening, a young orphan girl wanders into his cottage and into his heart. After becoming her guardian, his life is transformed and he begins a path to redemption and rebirth.
