The Production of Human-Made Diamonds "The year of fulfillment" for 2006 was the prophetic word that resonated to churches throughout the world, universally. January of 2006 the Lord showed me in a dream that I was pregnant. The discouraging thing about my pregnancy was that I was contemplating on secretly aborting my baby. Interesting enough, during that time I had put my home up for sale and decided to relocate from South Florida to the Atlanta, Georgia district. I didn't share the decision with many people, mainly because I wanted to keep my exit silent. On the other hand I definitely didn't want to hear that message again about a "Good Thing" and a "God Thing". I'd heard that message for the last time. Gheezzz! When I awoke from my dream, I immediately thought it was my sixteen year old daughter. I'd thought she'd conceived out of her rebellion and disobedience. During this time, I was actively involved in the ministry. How could I possibly think of aborting a child, I'd thought? Little did I know, the Holy Spirit, in that sweet, still small voice- spoke to me and said, "No, it's not your daughter, it's you." He showed me that by moving to Atlanta Georgia; although economical, although a good thing wasn't a God thing. Moving to Atlanta would have literally aborted my newborn child. "Wow, I was dumb founded!" Out of obedience to the Holy Spirit and the prophetic dream, a season and nine months later, I introduce to the world, "Black Diamond." Black diamond is a nonfiction account of an all exclusive untold story of what I believe to be spiritual wickedness in high places. This account takes you through the doorways of the supernatural, to the tangible. It is a true account of a sexual assault and battery that is a common epidemic in the United States. It's the doorway to both the mystical and ordinary; eventually leading you to a place of awareness, deliverance, healing and ultimate restoration. This is a provocative profile of a sexual assault case distorted by
