Beyond a Shadow of a Doubt Roger Sapp

Most people have enough faith to be healed and to heal the sick. The problem is not faith but doubt. While they are qualified to receive healing by virtue of the work of Christ at the cross, they judge themselves disqualified. Their doubt overshadows their faith. Doubt robs many people of what the Father would like to do for them. Doubts like... Is healing the will of God for everyone? Does God have a benevolent purpose in allowing sickness and injury? Is there a special timing to get healed? Do I have enough faith to be healed? Am I being presumptuous by asking for a miracle? Do I have to have a special revelation to receive or perform a miracle? What about people who have had faith for healing but died? What about God giving revelation that He has a reason for a believer being ill or injured? What if I am an intercessor bearing the sickness of others? What about discipline for sin? What about reaping what you have sown? What about abusing your body with drugs, tobacco and alcohol? What if I don't have the gift of healing? How do you get rid of the shadows that doubts like these cause? You shine the light of Jesus Christ on them. Christ is the light of the world and reveals the will of the Father perfectly. This book destroys doubts by exploring the truth that Christ revealed on these doubts by His behavior, attitudes and teaching.
