Do Not Be Afraid - A True Story Mr. Michael D Demchak

Do Not Be Afraid is a first person narrative beginning with the author coming to consciousness on the side of a dark road, badly injured and devoid of all memory. One coherent question “What just happened to me?” and a disembodied voice at his shoulder launch him on a curious and harrowing odyssey that includes observing his body being struck by a car, subsequent funeral and reentry into this world - as a zombie-like being. In this state, he relives his life in a series of cryptic episodic collages, which include interactions with mysterious supernatural beings - good, evil and erotic - until an enigmatic childhood memory sparks the realization that he is not dead.
