Joy, the third installment of the popular Victoria's Journey series, reveals Victoria's enduring hope in her search to strengthen her faith in God and finally break Betts' evil hold on her soul. Still trapped in a loveless marriage, Victoria is presented with the ammunition that she needs for a divorce, but Harlan refuses to let her go. Victoria finds comfort and joy in the special new addition to her family; however, she pays the price in the growing darkness of two of her children. When confronted by Harlan's affairs, a new evil, and a lost love, Victoria looks to her family for strength and support but finds the family that she's always leaned on shaken by heartbreaking losses. Will Victoria succumb to the pain of her sorrow and stay in a loveless marriage, or has she finally found the confidence and courage to "break the line"?
