For Mia, life is looking good. She has found love with Nate, another like her, and with his help she is gaining control of her abilities and in the process discovering her true self. However, the arrival of a package will again turn her life upside down. Tricked into a world she wants nothing to do with, will Mia be able to save herself, and those she loves?

The crew leave the destruction of their old home, and the death of their friends, behind them, and focus on the future. Trent has arranged a new permanent home, and this time a legitimate business as cover hoping it will keep them all safe, including Mia.

When Eric disappears Nate, Ryan, and Aiden, cross over to find him. Mia stays behind to remain hidden from the 'Others' but is ready to follow if Nate needs her, regardless of the consequences. After all, she can't stay hidden forever. When Nate sends a note back she crosses over, but becomes a reluctant participant in someone else's plan.

She can't refuse to do what they want without risking the life of one of her closest friends, something she is not prepared to do, and as she is drawn further into that world the lives of more of her friends will be at risk.

Will her abilities be enough to succeed at the task she's been given, and save her, and her friends? And when she sees an opportunity to take on some of the 'Others' will she fight, run, or finally find herself in their hands?

 This series contains feisty characters, and some coarse language and violence. **
