Luke Richards is slipping in the MMA ranks, and the fall from grace isn't going to be pretty, unless he can turn things around, and soon.

Tasha Hendricks is distraught. The weeks that have followed since parting ways with Luke have been some of the hardest in her life. When she receives a text from Luke that threatens to close down everything they've shared once and for all, it's a devastating blow to an already difficult situation. To make matters worse, parts of her past she was hoping to leave behind her forever are closing in from all sides, shaking her fragile world from the core.

When Tasha's editor drops an unwelcome job in her lap, she fears fate is playing a twisted game that's out of her hands. And when the sight of familiar copper hair flashing against fluorescent lights appears before her, things seem more beautiful and confusing than they have in the longest time.

Passion is primed to reignite hungry desires, and yet Tasha remains oblivious to the intentions of a fervent darkness drawing closer by the second. Will she surrender?
