High Caliber Kenneth Chisholm

Damien was a man down on his luck with no money and no job. He started to get tired of how he was living and decided to start making some money. He eventually would find himself in drama with one of the most ruthless and violent drug dealers in the city, Sunny. Even though Damien was broke, Sunny knew he was a high caliber type of person, and having problems with him could be dangerous. Their beef would get deeper and deeper by the day. Could these two squash their problems and try to build each other into something bigger. Or would their drama escalate and land one of them in jail or prison?
